

Photographic impression of the PSAD Spring meeting 2012 with special thanks to our colleague Andreas Schmitt, who appeared to be not only a talented researcher, but also an excellent photographer.

The hotel was located near the river, in the heart of Ljubljana.

The PSAD meeting is about to start, the first members have already arrived.

The PSAD meeting was held in the Mayor's room.

Professor Mark Peyrot informs the audience about the development of the DMSRQ.

On our way during the social event. Arie Nouwen and local organizer Karin Kanc walk on the left, in one of the beautiful streets of Ljubljana.

The castle of Ljubljana, where we had a delicious dinner.

PSAD members in the House of Experiments, the Slovenian Science Center In Ljubljana, where we attended a very entertaining and informative presentation about gasses.

Attendees of the PSAD meeting 2012, after the closing of the meeting.

Our mascotte.